

The Diploma will be delivered through consortia, which are groups of schools, colleges and private training providers approved by the Department of Children, Schools and Families.

Candidates wanting to include ISTD dance must have this taught by an ISTD member, so consortia will need to link with members to deliver our qualifications. To be part of this exciting new development, contact the person in the listing that follows. This is a complete list, by region, of consortia approved to offer the Creative and Media Diploma within England only.

Don't forget as well to enter your full details on www.dance-teachers.org so that consortia looking for a teacher in their area can also approach you.
