Copyright statement

2 December 2020

We understand that this year has meant many teachers have diversified their teaching, moving classes online and looking at new ways to win new business. These new ways of working mean we need to be clear on how our materials can be used by our members and dance teachers.

As a membership organisation and educational charity we are non-profit making. All income from the sales of our products goes to furthering our charitable purposes through our members. We expect that our products will be used by our members solely for teaching their own classes, and not for a wider audience.

Syllabus material should be used to support teachers training their students in the classroom – in person, or in a virtual space – such as Zoom.

Sharing and/or reproducing Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing syllabus material including DVDs, CDs and books is not permitted. This includes filming content from the syllabus material for sale of either downloadable content or DVDs.

A copyright statement is being placed on all materials.

All rights reserved. No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in or introduced into a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form, or by any means (electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise) without the prior written permission of the copyright owner.

Music and teaching online

Members may use some syllabus music for teaching online (please see exceptions below), providing this is in a private class which participants can sign into by invitation only. Please note that our music cannot be used for public online classes.

For copyright reasons (copyright is held by creators not ISTD), you must not use the following syllabus music at all in online teaching. We will advise in writing if this position changes:

- Classical Greek (Grades 1-5)
- Tap (Pre-Primary)
- National Medal Test
- All Dancesport music.
